Creative Aberdeenshire is a joint initiative between Garioch Heritage Centre and Aberdeenshire Lieutenancy

The Garioch Heritage Centre can be found on the site of the old Railway Works, behind the Aldi store, in a building with a distinctive 'sawtooth' roof which was once the Carriage and Waggonworks building.

FREE ENTRY

The Centre is a treasure trove of artefacts, photographs and information relating to the Garioch from the heart of Aberdeenshire

The Centre is staffed by friendly and welcoming volunteers, happy to share their local knowledge.

Visitors can also enjoy refreshments in Cafe Loco at the Garioch Heritage Centre where excellent tea & coffee, scones, and fine pieces and light lunches are served (last orders 3.30pm).

The Downstairs Gallery regularly hosts special exhibitions (for some there may have to be a small charge)

The Centre is open Thursday – Sunday 10am – 4pm

Exhibitions which are coming up include:

11 & 12 September – Antique and Collectible Fair

14 Sept – 19 Sept (inclusive) NEOS

23 Sept – 3 Oct (Thurs – Sunday) Creative Aberdeenshire

9 Oct – 22 Nov – Brick Wonders - Around the world in Lego Bricks

27 & 28 Nov – Exclusively Highland
